TESSA DOWLING PUBLICATIONS

JOURNAL ARTICLES

BOOKS, CD-ROMS and AUDIO CDS

2006 Xhosa for the Classroom. African Voices, Cape Town.

2006 Headstart Grade 9 English. Oxford University Press, Cape Town.

2003 IsiXhosa Silula – Xhosa is Easy. Basic textbook for beginners. African Voices and the Western Cape Education Department, Cape Town.

1997 Speak Xhosa with Us. Course book and CD-ROM. African Voices, Cape Town

CHAPTERS IN BOOKS

MEDIA ARTICLES

2015 Lost in translation: hilarious mistakes can be dangerous too. Mail & Guardian. January 16.

2013 Opinion piece, Cape Times 4 July. Lift the corner of the blanket and find a new word for sex.

2013 Opinion piece, Sunday Times 19 May. Learning to click with our tongues.

2011-2013 Getting to grips with our languages. Quarterly column in Independent Schools Magazine. ISASA. www.isasa.org/books

2010 Protection of the impimpi. Litnet.

2009 Prof. Jansen’s plea for multilingualism. Interview with Shane Kleyn on Litnet.

2008 How to be an FNB. Column, Personal Finance Magazine, January.

2008 Tea bags, kissing knees, ama-reverse and maize stalks – celebrating the body beautiful kwaMzoli.
Column, Sunday Independent, 25 May.

2008 Sis' Pinkie puts her foot down, and the Pedi podiatrist is all ears.
Column, Sunday Independent, 10 February.

2007 Taking i-language yakhe seriously kwaMzoli.
Column, Sunday Independent, 2 December.

2007 Spring – season of folded panties, jealousy and the wisdom of taxis.
Column, Sunday Independent, 7 October.

2007 Grooming, garnishes and the root of all evil.
Column, Sunday Independent, 5 August.

2007 Sis’ Dikeledi tunes the ama-call centres skeef.
Column, Sunday Independent, 10 June.

2007 South Africa still holding its African tongue.
Opinion piece, Business Day, 7 May.

2007 Smileys, Binnegoed and the Left Hand of Khetsekile beating in deep isiXhosa
Column, Sunday Independent, 15 April.
2007  Sunday afternoons kwaMzoli cannot be John 14 for long.

2006  If you're looking for a man you need an iLiyo wabenzi.

2006  Bra Vinci’s Codesa will get us scurrying to change our names.
Column, Sunday Independent, 21 May.

2006  April Foolishness only works for the English.

2006  Language is sweet when Mzoli’s best loosens the tongue.

2005  Nothing gets a girl a drink like a bit of the mother tongue.

2005  Hip in the township – one-off ads. (co-author with Myolisi Gophe and Lulama Zenzile) in The Star Online Edition, October 1